

Answers to Seminole Fun Facts

How many other Counties touch ours? 4, even though Brevard only touches us at one point!

How many Cities are there in Seminole County? 7

Can you name them? Altamonte Springs, Casselberry, Lake Mary, Longwood, Oviedo, Sanford, Winter Springs.

Sanford is the largest city in the County in land area with 13,853 acres and also has the largest population according to the 2003 Census estimate with 43566 people.

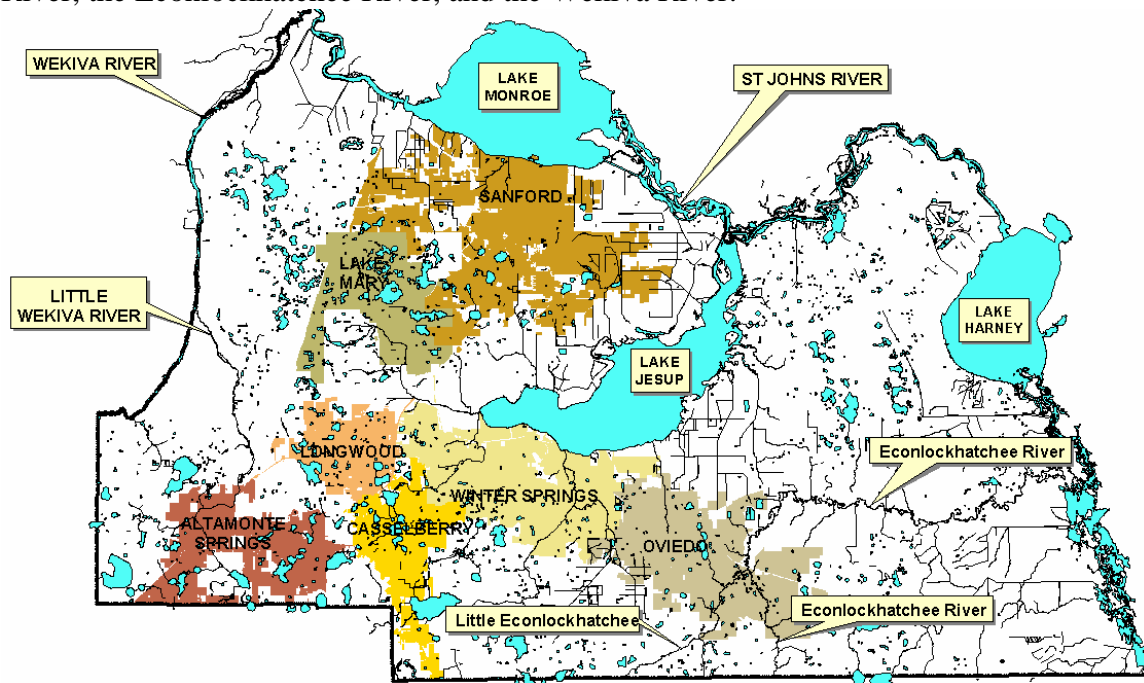

The city smallest in land area is Longwood with 3657 acres but Lake Mary has the smallest population with 13,260.

The city of Sanford is the County seat of government.

City Name	Size (Acres) Sept 2004	Population - 2003 Census Estimate
Altamonte Springs	6119	40942
Casselberry	4658	23707
Lake Mary	6191	13260
Longwood	3657	13674
Oviedo	9738	27940
Sanford	13853	43566
Winter Springs	9310	31808

Water has played an important part in Seminole County's history. The three major water bodies in Seminole County are Lake Monroe, Lake Jesup, and Lake Harney. The rivers are the St Johns River, the Econlockhatchee River, and the Wekiva River.

Historic Census Populations for Seminole County
1900	1920	1970	1980	1990	2000	2003 (est)	2004 (est)
*	10,986	83,692	179,752	287,529	365,196	386,374	394,600

* fooled you! Seminole County was part of Orange County in 1900

What does that tell you about our County? Seminole County is a great place to live!